Section 4

Part E - Info you may need to know

What's the difference between an Account Owner and an Authorised Signatory?

For the purposes of this form, the Account Owner is the person(s) authorised to act on behalf of the Customer or Account Owner organisation, including for the purposes of opening accounts and appointing Authorised Signatories for an account, and are normally one of the following:

- a director of a Company;
- a partner in a Partnership;
- a trustee of a Trust; or
- an appointed/elected officer of a Society (Chairperson, Secretary or Treasurer).

An Authorised Signatory is authorised by the Account Owner to operate the specific account(s) in accordance with the signing rule for the Account Operating Authority. (e.g. make payments and view transactions). An Account Owner may or may not choose to be an Authorised Signatory.

What supporting documentation will I need?

- The Bank is, or may be, required to verify the identity of the people listed in this form and certain other information provided in this form.
- Where the Authorised Signatory holds a particular office within the Account Owner organisation and, by virtue of holding that office, can act on behalf of the organisation, we may need to sight evidence of their appointment or removal.

Examples of what we may require is:

- a company director: The Bank will check the director's details against the information registered on the Companies Office website; or
- a Treasurer of a society being removed: The Bank will need to see the minutes from the meeting at which the new Treasurer was appointed, signed by the Chairperson, previous Treasurer and Secretary. These officers should already be Authorised Signatories on the account.

- The signing rule does not determine how many Account Owners need to authorise these changes.
- Persons authorised to act on behalf of the Account Owner organisation must sign in accordance with any rules, requirements or internal policies of the organisation, such as those specified in a constitution or trust deed.
