Medium Term Note Programme

Issuer

China Construction Bank (New Zealand) Limited

Date: 19 May 2015

This document gives you important information about this investment to help you decide whether you want to invest. There is other useful information about this offer on www.business.govt.nz/disclose. China Construction Bank (New Zealand) Limited has prepared this document in accordance with the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013. You can also seek advice from a financial adviser to help you to make an investment decision.

1 Key Information Summary

What is this?

This is an offer of unsecured, unsubordinated medium term notes ("Notes"). Notes are debt securities issued by China Construction Bank (New Zealand) Limited ("CCB NZ"). You give CCB NZ money, and in return CCB NZ promises to pay you interest and repay the money at the end of the term. If CCB NZ runs into financial trouble, you might lose some or all of the money you invested.

About CCB NZ and China Construction Bank Corporation ("CCB") and its subsidiaries (together, the "CCB Group")

CCB NZ is a company registered in New Zealand with incorporation number 4929019. CCB NZ became a registered bank in New Zealand on 15 July 2014. The principal activity of CCB NZ is providing a range of banking products and services to high net worth customers, business, corporate and institutional customers.

Information about CCB NZ, including its financial statements, is published quarterly in disclosure statements required under the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989. CCB NZ's disclosure statements are available at nz.ccb.com.

CCB NZ's parent company is CCB, incorporated in the People's Republic of China. CCB is subject to regulatory oversight by the China Bank Regulatory Commission and the Government of the People's Republic of China. CCB is not a registered bank in New Zealand and is not subject to regulatory oversight by the Reserve Bank of New Zealand.

The CCB Group offers a comprehensive range of commercial banking products and services to customers in the People's Republic of China and around the world.

Purpose of this offer

The purpose of the offer of Notes is to raise funds which will be used for the general corporate purposes of CCB NZ, including making loans and other banking products available to CCB NZ's customers.

Key terms of the offer

Issuer	CCB NZ
Description	A retail programme for the issuance of unsecured, unsubordinated medium term notes
Parent Company Guarantee	At the date of this document, the obligations of CCB NZ are guaranteed by CCB, under a Deed of Guarantee dated 30 May 2014 (" Parent Company Guarantee ")
Series	The Notes are part of a retail series offered by CCB NZ. The terms of that series will be identical, except that each issue under that series may have a different issue date, maturity date, issue price, interest payment dates and interest rate, all as set out in the relevant final terms and (if applicable) confirmation of issue (" issue terms ")
Issue price	Notes may be issued at an issue price equal to, above or below their principal amount, as set out in the relevant issue terms.
Term	The Notes will have an original term of 365 days or more, with the particular terms set out in the relevant issue terms

Interest rate	Each series of Notes will bear interest at either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• a fixed rate for the whole term of the Notes; or</li> <li>• a floating rate calculated as a specific margin (which will apply for the whole term of the Notes) over the 3 month wholesale bank bill rate.</li> </ul> The interest rate or method by which the interest rate will be determined will be set out in the relevant issue terms
Interest periods	Interest will be paid in arrear semi-annually (in the case of fixed rate Notes) or every 3 months (in the case of floating rate Notes), and may have a short or long initial interest period, as set out in the relevant issue terms
Further payments, fees or charges	By subscribing for or otherwise acquiring Notes, you agree to indemnify CCB NZ for any loss suffered by it as a result of any breach of the selling restrictions set out in section 4 of this document (Key Features of the Notes). Taxes may be deducted from interest payments on the Notes. See section 6 of this document (Tax) for further details
Application amounts	The minimum subscription amount is $5,000 and higher multiples of $1,000

Who is responsible for repaying you?

CCB NZ is responsible for the repayment of the Notes. If CCB NZ fails to repay the Notes, you may demand payment from CCB under the Parent Company Guarantee by following the steps set out in that guarantee. See section 3 of this document (Key Features of the Notes) for further details.

The Notes are not guaranteed by any other member of the CCB Group.

How you can get your money out early

The Notes cannot be redeemed before their maturity date unless there is an event of default in respect of the Notes (see section 4 of this document (Key Features of the Notes) for further details).

CCB NZ does not intend to quote these Notes on a market licensed in New Zealand and there is no other established market for trading them. This means that you may not be able to sell your Notes before the end of their term.

How the Notes rank for repayment

If CCB NZ goes into liquidation:

- You will be repaid only after CCB NZ's secured creditors and creditors preferred by law (for example, Inland Revenue).
- You will be repaid at the same time and to the same extent as all other unsecured unsubordinated creditors of CCB NZ (including other holders).
- You will be repaid before CCB NZ's subordinated creditors (if any) and shareholders.

You should also read section 4 of this document (Key Features of the Notes).

No security

The Notes are unsecured.

Key risks affecting this investment

Investments in debt securities have risks. A key risk is that CCB NZ does not meet its commitments to repay you or pay you interest (credit risk). Section 5 of this document (Risks of Investing) discusses the main factors that give rise to the risk. You should consider if the credit risk of these debt securities is suitable for you.

The interest rate for these Notes should also reflect the degree of credit risk. In general, higher returns are demanded by investors from businesses with higher risk of defaulting on their commitments. You need to decide whether the offer is fair. CCB NZ considers that the most significant risk factors are:

- CCB NZ has recently entered the New Zealand market, and is in the process of establishing and expanding its business. Therefore CCB NZ is particularly reliant on being able to successfully grow its business in New Zealand, acquire appropriate personnel and infrastructure, and compete with other banks.
- As a bank, CCB NZ is also particularly susceptible to risks that its customers do not repay their loans, including as a result of downturns in the sectors and regions to which it has significant exposure given the concentration of its loan portfolio (credit risk).

This summary does not cover all of the risks of investing in the Notes. You should also read section 5 of this document (Risks of Investing) and section 4 of this document (Key Features of the Notes).

What is the Notes' credit rating?

A credit rating is an independent opinion of the capability and willingness of an entity to repay its debts (in other words, its creditworthiness). It is not a guarantee that the financial product being offered is a safe investment. A credit rating should be considered alongside all other relevant information when making an investment decision.

The programme under which the Notes are offered has been rated by Standard & Poor's and Moody's Investors Service. Standard & Poor's gives ratings from AAA to C. Moody's gives ratings from Aaa to Ca.

Current credit ratings of the programme under which the Notes are offered

Standard & Poor's
Rating:*	AAA	AA	A	BBB		BB	B	CCC	CC	C
Capacity to make timely payment:	Extremely strong	Very strong	Strong Current programme rating A (stable)	Adequate	Vulnerability to non-payment:	Less vulnerable	More vulnerable	Currently vulnerable	Currently highly vulnerable	Currently highly vulnerable

Note:

* Standard & Poor's ratings from 'AA' to 'CCC' may be modified by the addition of a plus (+) or minus (-) sign to show relative standing within the major rating categories.

Moody's
Rating:	Aaa	Aa	A	Baa	Ba	B	Caa	Ca
Credit risk:	Minimal	Very low	Low Current programme rating A1 (stable)	Moderate	Substantial	High	Very high	Likely in, or very near, default

Note:

** Moody's appends numerical modifiers 1, 2, and 3 to each generic rating classification from Aa through Caa. The modifier 1 indicates that the obligation ranks in the higher end of its generic rating category; the modifier 2 indicates a mid-range ranking; and the modifier 3 indicates a ranking in the lower end of that generic rating category.

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to CCB NZ. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks and other factors that may affect CCB NZ. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

3 Purpose of the Offer

The purpose of the offer of Notes is to raise funds which will be used for the general corporate purposes of CCB NZ, including making loans and other banking products available to CCB NZ's customers.

4 Key Features of the Notes

Form and status of the Notes

Each Note is a registered debt obligation of CCB NZ, constituted by, and owing under, the Note Deed Poll. This means that title to each Note will be conclusively determined by the name of the holder entered in the Note register, subject to correction for fraud or error. CCB NZ is entitled to deal exclusively with the person(s) named in the Note register for all purposes, including making any payments.

The Notes constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of CCB NZ, ranking equally among themselves and at least equally with all other present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of CCB NZ, except for liabilities mandatorily preferred by law. See further below under the heading "Ranking".

Ranking

If CCB NZ goes into liquidation:

- You will be repaid only after CCB NZ's secured creditors and creditors preferred by law (for example, Inland Revenue).
- You will be repaid at the same time and to the same extent as all other unsecured unsubordinated creditors of CCB NZ (including other holders).
- You will be repaid before CCB NZ's subordinated creditors (if any) and shareholders.

After the issuance of any Notes, CCB NZ may from time to time borrow or raise additional debt, or otherwise incur liabilities, without your consent, that:

- rank equally with the Notes. This may include further issuances of Notes, and other unsubordinated, unsecured borrowings of CCB NZ; or
- rank in priority to the Notes. This may include secured bonds, other secured borrowing of CCB NZ, and liabilities preferred by law.

CCB NZ is not restricted by the terms of any trust deed or other covenants with third parties from creating further liabilities that rank equally with, or in priority to, the Notes on a liquidation of CCB NZ. The creation of such further liabilities may reduce the amount recoverable by you in the case of liquidation of CCB NZ.

The below diagram summarises the ranking of the Notes on a liquidation of CCB NZ.

Guarantee

At the date of this document, the obligations of CCB NZ are guaranteed by China Construction Bank Corporation under the Parent Company Guarantee. CCB is the parent company of CCB NZ and a member of the CCB Group, which includes CCB NZ.

There are no limits on the amount of the obligations guaranteed under the Parent Company Guarantee, and no conditions applicable to the Parent Company Guarantee other than non-performance by CCB NZ and following the demand process described below.

The Parent Company Guarantee is not secured by any security interest.

You may make a demand under the Parent Company Guarantee if:

- you have served written demand on CCB NZ with proper proof of the unpaid obligation;
- you have complied with all the requirements of CCB NZ including with regard to documentation and security; and
- the demand on CCB NZ remains unsatisfied for 5 business days after service.

A demand under the Parent Company Guarantee must be accompanied by a statutory declaration, including statements of your residency and place of business, that CCB NZ has failed to meet the obligation, that a written demand has been served on CCB NZ, and certain details of the obligation as set out in the Parent Company Guarantee. A verified copy of the written demand on CCB NZ must also be provided.

Upon receipt of such a written demand under the Parent Company Guarantee, CCB shall be required to forthwith pay or cause to be paid the outstanding amount as stated in the demand.

The Parent Company Guarantee is governed by New Zealand law. CCB and CCB NZ have each submitted, for the purposes of the Parent Company Guarantee, to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New Zealand.

The address for service of CCB is No. 25 Financial Street, Xicheng District, Beijing 100033, People's Republic of China. CCB has also irrevocably appointed CCB NZ to accept service of process in New Zealand on behalf of CCB in respect of all matters in New Zealand arising under or in relation to the Parent Company Guarantee.

You should note that the People's Republic of China does not have a treaty providing for the reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments of courts with New Zealand. It may not be possible for you to effect service of process upon CCB in the People's Republic of China and judgments made by New Zealand courts might not be recognised or enforced in the People's Republic of China.

A copy of the Parent Company Guarantee may be obtained from the offer register at www.business.govt.nz/disclose.

Events of default

If an event of default occurs and continues unremedied in relation to any Notes in a series, you may require your Notes in that series to be repaid early at their principal amount together with accrued interest, subject to any deductions on account of tax.

The events of default are set out in the Note Deed Poll, and include (among others):

- failure by CCB NZ to pay any interest in respect of the Notes within 14 days of the relevant due date, or any principal in respect of the Notes within 7 days of the relevant due date;
- default by CCB NZ in performance or observance of any of its other obligations under any Notes, which default is incapable of remedy or, if capable of remedy, is not remedied within 30 days after notice has been given to CCB NZ requiring such default to be remedied; and
- the Parent Company Guarantee not being in full force and effect.

Selling restrictions

You may only offer for sale or sell any Note in conformity with all applicable laws and regulations in any jurisdiction in which it is offered, sold or delivered. No product disclosure statement, information memorandum, advertisement or other offering material in respect of any Note may be published, delivered or distributed in or from any country or jurisdiction except under circumstances which will result in compliance with all applicable laws.

By subscribing for or otherwise acquiring Notes, you agree to indemnify CCB NZ for any loss suffered by it as a result of any breach of the above selling restrictions.

Transfers

You may transfer any of your Notes by:

- a written instrument of transfer in any commonly used form that complies with the standard form and procedures of the Note Registrar and applicable law;
- instructing the Note Registrar to transfer the Notes into the name(s) of the transferee(s) through NZClear in accordance with the standard form and procedures of the Note Registrar; or
- any other method of transfer of marketable securities that is not contrary to any law and that is approved by CCB NZ.

Interests in Notes entered into NZClear will be transferable in accordance with NZClear's rules and operating guidelines. See further below under the heading "Notes held in NZClear".

You may transfer part of your holding of Notes. However, no transfer of any part of your holding may be made if it would result in you or the transferee holding or continuing to hold Notes with an aggregate principal amount that is less than $5,000 or is not a higher multiple of $1,000.

Currency

CCB NZ will pay principal and returns on the Notes in New Zealand dollars. This presents certain currency conversion risks if you have a different home currency (that is, if the currency in which your financial activities are primarily denominated is not New Zealand dollars). These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change and the risk that relevant authorities may impose or modify exchange controls. If the value of your home currency appreciates relative to New Zealand dollars, the yield, principal value and/or market value of the Notes, when expressed in your home currency, would decrease.

Payments and record dates

The record date for any payment due in respect of the Notes is the close of business on the tenth day before the due date for that payment.

Payment in respect of each Note will be made to the person whose name appears in the Note register as the holder on the record date. If more than one person is named in the Note register, payment will be made to the first person named.

- For Notes which are not held in NZClear, payment will be made by the Paying Agent by direct credit to a bank account specified by you by notice in writing to the Note Registrar or (if you have not specified a bank account) by cheque sent to your address as recorded in the Note register on the record date.
- For Notes held in NZClear, payment will be made by CCB NZ crediting on the relevant payment date the amount due to the account of the Paying Agent or other account previously notified by the Paying Agent or NZClear to CCB NZ.

If the due date for any payment is not a business day:

- If the relevant Note bears fixed rate interest, payment will be made on the next date which is a business day, but the amount paid will not be adjusted – that is, interest payments will be made in semi-annual instalments of equal amounts (except for any initial short or long interest period).
- If the relevant Note bears floating rate interest, payment will be made on the next date which is a business day, unless that day falls in the next calendar month in which case payment will be made on the first preceding day that is a business day, and the calculation of any accrued interest will be adjusted up or down accordingly.

You may not require the transfer of any Note to be registered during the period from a record date until the relevant payment date.

Meetings and variation of the Notes

Meetings of holders may be called to consider matters affecting their interests generally. In such meetings, defined majorities may bind you and all other holders, even if you did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting or voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The Notes may also be varied without your consent in certain limited circumstances, including if (in the reasonable opinion of CCB NZ) the variation is necessary or advisable to comply with any law, is of a formal, technical or administrative nature only, is made to cure any ambiguity or is not materially prejudicial to the interests of holders as a whole.

Notes held in NZClear

Notes offered to institutional investors may be held in NZClear. Investors may acquire interests in those Notes if they are members of NZClear, or through a nominee who is a member. If your Notes are held in NZClear your rights (and the rights of each other person holding an interest in the Notes) are subject to NZClear's rules and operating guidelines.

CCB NZ is not responsible for anything that NZClear does or omits to do or for any loss occasioned by the failure of NZClear.

Governing law

The Notes, the Deed Poll and the Parent Company Guarantee are governed by New Zealand law. Accordingly, future judicial decisions and changes to New Zealand law or administrative practices may affect the interpretation of the Notes.

5 Risks of Investing

General risks

Your investment in the Notes is subject to the following general risks:

Credit risk on CCB NZ

The principal risk of holders not being able to recover in full their principal investment is that CCB NZ may become insolvent, may be placed in receivership, liquidation or statutory management or otherwise may be unable to and/or fail to make any payment. In that event, you might not recover all your initial principal investment or receive the expected returns.

Secondary market risk

The Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market does develop, an investment in Notes may not be very liquid. Therefore, you may not be able to sell your Notes easily or at prices that will provide you with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. Illiquidity may reduce the market value of the Notes.

Specific risks relating to CCB NZ's creditworthiness

CCB NZ is aware of the following circumstances that exist or are likely to arise that significantly increase the risk that CCB NZ may default on any of its payment obligations under the Notes:

CCB NZ has recently entered the New Zealand market

CCB NZ became a registered bank in New Zealand on 15 July 2014 and is currently establishing its business and expanding the range of products and services it provides to customers.

- The establishment and expansion of CCB NZ's business is subject to various risks and challenges, including hiring additional qualified personnel and acquiring additional infrastructure, and the possibility that new products and services may not be accepted by customers or be as profitable as expected. CCB NZ (as expected) showed a net loss for the financial year ended 31 December 2014. If CCB NZ cannot grow its business as intended this could have an adverse effect on CCB NZ's financial position and may mean that CCB NZ shows a net loss in later income years.
- Further, there is competition from established banks and other new entrants, including competitors that have greater financial and other resources than CCB NZ. Larger competitors may also have lower relative fixed costs compared to their size, due to economies of scale. There is a limited market, especially for personal banking products such as residential mortgage loans, credit cards and personal loans. This competition may make it difficult for CCB NZ to increase the size of its loan portfolio and deposit base and may cause intense pricing competition, which could have an adverse effect on its growth plans, interest and other margins, and business.

CCB credit events may affect its subsidiaries, including CCB NZ

As at the date of this document, CCB owns 100% of the shares of CCB NZ and has provided the Parent Company Guarantee described in section 4 of this document (Key Features of the Notes). The Parent Company Guarantee is a factor contributing to the current credit ratings of CCB NZ. If CCB runs into financial difficulty, this could also result in a credit rating downgrade for CCB NZ and could constrain CCB NZ's access to capital and liquidity.

Credit risk on customers

- The business of CCB NZ and, more generally, the CCB Group could be materially and adversely affected by losses arising from the failure of its customers to pay principal and/or interest on money lent. This could occur for a variety of reasons, including a slowdown in growth of the New Zealand, Chinese or global economies, declines in property prices, poor economic conditions in a specific industry sector or geographic region (particularly sectors and regions to which CCB NZ has significant exposure, as discussed below), and worsening credit of its counterparties. CCB NZ has a clearly defined credit risk policy for the approval and management of credit risk, including credit underwriting policies and standards for lending, policies and procedures setting out the circumstances where collateral is to be taken to mitigate credit risk.
- Following CCB NZ's recent establishment its loan portfolio is still relatively concentrated. The overall quality of its loan portfolio could materially deteriorate following a decline in the credit quality of its significant borrowers. CCB NZ monitors its portfolio to identify and assess risk concentrations, with portfolio management objectives to create a diversified portfolio avoiding significantly large concentrations of economically related credit risk exposures.

Liquidity, funding and market risk

CCB has contributed capital and provided substantial amounts to fund payment of CCB NZ's set-up costs. However, CCB NZ may require significant additional capital in order to continue to grow, remain competitive, enter new businesses and expand its base of operations, or if CCB NZ experiences significant losses or impairments. There can be no assurance that CCB NZ will be able to obtain additional capital, from CCB or otherwise, in a timely manner, on acceptable terms or at all.

As discussed above, CCB NZ is in the process of growing its business and customer base in New Zealand. An inability of CCB NZ or the CCB Group to adequately provide for decreases or changes in funding sources in New Zealand may have a material adverse impact on their businesses.

CCB NZ is also exposed to the risk of loss arising from adverse movements in market rates including interest rates and foreign exchange rates (market risk).

CCB NZ has a policy to manage liquidity, funding and market risks which is set by the board of CCB NZ. Compliance with this policy is monitored on an ongoing basis.

Operational risks

CCB NZ is exposed to operational risks, including the risk of fraud, unauthorised transactions, breach of law, misconduct by employees, or inaccurate data entry resulting in unintended transfers of funds. These risks are heightened during the period that CCB NZ is seeking to establish and integrate its internal systems and policies and when it is involved in payments and transactions that are comparatively large relative to its capital position.

CCB NZ manages operational risks through business line management (including identification, measurement, monitoring and mitigation) on a day-to-day basis, oversight and support from its Risk Management and Finance Departments, and assurance provided by internal audits.

Strategic and business risk

CCB NZ is exposed to the risk of loss resulting from changes affecting the delivery of financial services, including those arising from social trends and technology changes, particularly as CCB NZ seeks to build capability and establish new lines of business.

CCB NZ manages this risk through the establishment and maintenance of an appropriate internal organisational environment, and structures and processes for the evaluation of such risks and allowing pursuit of opportunities while mitigating vulnerability.

Regulatory risks

CCB NZ and the CCB Group are subject to financial service laws, regulations, administrative actions and policies, including capital adequacy requirements and conditions of registration specified by the Reserve Bank of New Zealand. CCB NZ has implemented systems and risk management processes to ensure compliance with these requirements that, given its recent establishment, are relatively untested.

Failure to comply with these and other laws, regulations or codes of practice (including without limitation in relation to money laundering, terrorist financing, market manipulation and sanctions) could result in regulatory fines and sanctions, compensatory actions, or CCB NZ's banking licence being revoked.

Further, any changes in the policy of the governments of New Zealand or the People's Republic of China which affect immigration and/or exchange controls could impact CCB NZ's business.

Risk factors – likelihood, impact and magnitude

Any of the circumstances described above may result in the following impacts on CCB NZ:

- specific trading losses or reduced revenues – this is assessed as having a reasonable probability of happening but a moderate impact (for example, some credit defaults are expected but are provided for in the normal course of money lending);
- larger one-off losses or impairments, which are assessed as having a low probability, but – if they occur – would have a greater magnitude of impact on CCB NZ's financial position; and
- as a result of either of the above, a reduction in CCB NZ's capital available to absorb further losses and therefore an increased risk of default.

It is not possible to forecast precisely the probability or magnitude of any of the particular business, financial and other risks described above. CCB NZ seeks to reduce the likelihood, impact and magnitude of the circumstances identified above by:

- strategies to expand its capabilities and broaden its lines of business;
- risk management systems and procedures, including oversight and internal audit;
- maintaining a prudent level of capital and liquidity; and
- the Parent Company Guarantee.

From the perspective of holders of Notes, the key potential impacts of any of the identified circumstances occurring, or a failure of the risk management systems or strategies, are:

- actual or perceived reduction in credit quality of CCB NZ and/or credit rating downgrade leading to a loss in the market value of Notes, if sold on the secondary market; and
- default by CCB NZ in repaying the Notes or paying interest due on them.

6 Tax

New Zealand tax residents will have resident withholding tax deducted from the interest that is payable under the Notes, unless they produce to the Note Registrar a valid certificate of exemption on or before the record date for the relevant payment.

If you are not a tax resident in New Zealand, do not have a fixed establishment in New Zealand, and do not derive interest jointly with one or more holders that are resident in New Zealand, an amount equal to the approved issuer levy will be deducted from payments to you in lieu of deducting non-resident withholding tax (except where you elect otherwise or it is not possible under any law). See the Note Deed Poll for further details.

If, in respect of any of your Notes, the Paying Agent or CCB NZ becomes liable to account for withholding taxes, or make any payment of, or on account of, tax payable by you, then the Paying Agent and CCB NZ shall be indemnified by you in respect of such liability. See the Note Deed Poll for further details.

There may be other tax consequences from acquiring or disposing of the Notes.

If you have any queries relating to the tax consequences of an investment in the Notes, you should obtain professional advice on those consequences.

7 How to Complain

Complaints about the Notes can be directed to CCB NZ at:

Application Instructions and Application Form

Application Instructions

The following application form is issued with the product disclosure statement dated 19 May 2015 (“Product Disclosure Statement”) for the retail Medium Term Note Programme of China Construction Bank (New Zealand) Limited (“CCB NZ”).

Terms defined in the Product Disclosure Statement have the same meaning in these instructions.

You should read the entirety of the Product Disclosure Statement and these instructions carefully before completing the application form. Applications to subscribe for Notes must be made on an application form contained in the Product Disclosure Statement.

An application will constitute an irrevocable offer by the applicant to subscribe for and acquire the principal amount specified on the application form (or such lesser amount which CCB NZ may determine) of Notes from the issuance specified on the application form, on the terms and conditions set out in the Product Disclosure Statement, the Note Deed Poll, the relevant final terms and (if applicable) confirmation of issue, these instructions and the application form. An application cannot be withdrawn or revoked by the applicant once it has been submitted.

Please complete all relevant sections of the application form using BLOCK LETTERS. CCB NZ may accept any application form not correctly completed as being valid, and may correct errors and omissions, in its sole discretion. CCB NZ’s decision on the aggregate principal amount of Notes to be allotted to an applicant and as to whether to accept or reject an application form, or to treat it as valid, will be final.

Applicants must provide a completed application form (with payment) by the date and time, and to the location specified by or on behalf of CCB NZ (if any) in respect of the relevant issuance of Notes. CCB NZ reserves the right to refuse to accept applications received after any such time.

Personal information provided by you will be held by CCB NZ and the Note Registrar at their respective addresses as specified in the offer register or at such other place as is notified upon request. This information will be used for the purpose of assessing and processing your application and administering your investment, and to help and enable CCB NZ or the Note Registrar to comply with (or determine what it needs to do to comply with) any applicable laws, rules or regulations in New Zealand or any other country or the requirements of any governmental, judicial or regulatory entity or authority in any jurisdiction. If you are an individual under the Privacy Act 1993, you have the right to access and correct any of your personal information.

A IDENTIFICATION OF NOTES

Insert the identification code for the issuance of Notes that you are applying for. This will be provided by CCB NZ and will be in the form “CCB NZ/RMTN/Issue identifier – eg Fixed 2015 001A”. If you do not know the relevant identification code, you should request this from CCB NZ or the Note Registrar.

B APPLICANT DETAILS

Insert your full name(s). Applications must be in the name(s) of natural persons, companies or other legal entities, up to a maximum of three names per application. See the table below on correct name conventions.

Insert your postal address, as all correspondence relating to your holding of Notes will be sent to you at this address. For joint applicants, only one address is to be entered (only the address of the first named of the joint applicants will be recorded on the Note Register and all interest payments, notices, and other correspondence will be sent to that address).

Provide your telephone number so that the Note Registrar or CCB NZ can contact you in relation to your application if required.

Type of investor	Correct way to write name	Incorrect way to write name

C APPLICATION PAYMENT AND RECEIPT OF INTEREST PAYMENTS

Application Payment

Complete the principal amount of Notes applied for. You may apply for Notes in the minimum principal amount of $5,000 or in higher multiples of $1,000 as stated in the application form.

Payment for the Notes must be made in New Zealand dollars for immediate value by:

Option 1: A direct debit authorisation. If you choose the direct debit option, you must tick the box authorising CCB NZ or the Note Registrar to direct debit the bank account nominated on the application form on the day the application form is received for the amount applied for on the application form. You cannot specify a direct debit date. You must ensure that:

- the bank account details supplied are correct;
- sufficient funds in the bank account for direct debit are available on the day the application form is received by CCB NZ or the Note Registrar;
- the person(s) giving the direct debit instruction has/have the authority to operate the account solely/jointly; and
- the bank account you nominated is a transactional account eligible for direct debit transactions. If you are uncertain, you should contact your bank or financial institution.

Should your direct debit fail, your application will be rejected.

If requested, a direct debit authority form will be provided to you by CCB NZ or the Note Registrar. Refer to the contact details in section 8 of this document (Where You Can Find More Information) and section 10 of this document (Contact Information).

Option 2: A cheque drawn on a New Zealand bank account (or, if the application is for Notes of an aggregate subscription amount of $500,000 or more, by bank cheque).

Cheques must be drawn on a New Zealand registered bank, from a New Zealand dollar bank account and must be made in New Zealand dollars. Cheques must be made payable to "CCB NZ Medium Term Note Offer", must include the identification code for the issuance of Notes (as included under item A above), must be crossed "Not Transferable" and must not be post-dated (as cheques will be banked on day of receipt). If an applicant's cheque is dishonoured, CCB NZ may cancel that applicant's allotment of Notes and pursue any other remedies available to it at law.

Option 3: Applicants who are institutional investors and are members of NZClear may, by prior arrangement with CCB NZ and the Note Registrar, settle their applications for Notes on their issue date through NZClear.

Future interest payments

All future interest payments will be made to the account specified on the application form. If you do not select the direct debit option (option 1), you must provide your bank account details so that CCB NZ can direct credit your interest payments into your bank account.

D COMMON SHAREHOLDER NUMBER (CSN)

If you have other investments registered under a Common Shareholder Number (“CSN”) you can supply your CSN in the space provided. The name and address details on your application form must correspond with the registration details under that CSN.

E ELECTRONIC CORRESPONDENCE AND CONFIRMATION INFORMATION

By supplying your email address, CCB NZ will be able to deliver your investor correspondence, including confirmation information relating to your Notes, to you electronically where possible. This is a much more environmentally friendly, cost effective and timely option than paper-based investor mailing.

Please confirm whether you agree to have confirmation information (relating to the issuance, transfer or redemption of Notes) sent to you semi-annually, not later than 10 working days after the last day of each six month period in which there are any transactions to report. Otherwise, confirmation information will be sent to you as required following each relevant transaction.

F IRD NUMBER AND WITHHOLDING TAXES

Please supply your IRD number. Resident withholding tax will be deducted from any interest paid to you unless you provide a valid RWT exemption certificate or indicate that you are non-resident for New Zealand tax purposes; please tick the box that applies to you. If you are exempt from resident withholding tax, please attach a copy of your RWT exemption certificate.

Please also indicate whether you are non-resident and carry on business in New Zealand through a fixed establishment in New Zealand, or you are making a joint application for (i) a resident for New Zealand tax purposes and (ii) a non-resident for New Zealand tax purposes who does not carry on business in New Zealand through a fixed establishment in New Zealand.

G US RESIDENTS OR CITIZENS

Please indicate whether you (or any of you, in the case of a joint application) are US resident for tax purposes or are a US citizen, or (in the case of companies and other legal entities) please indicate your country of establishment.

H SIGNATURE(S) OF APPLICANT(S)

Read the Product Disclosure Statement, these instructions and the application form carefully and sign and date the application form.

You must confirm that you have received and read the Product Disclosure Statement. If you have not received the Product Disclosure Statement, you may obtain a copy from CCB NZ or the Note Registrar. A copy of the Product Disclosure Statement and other useful information about this offer may also be obtained from www.business.govt.nz/disclose.

The application form must be signed by the applicant(s) personally, or by two directors of a company (or one director if there is only one director, whose signature must be witnessed), or in either case by a duly authorised attorney or agent. Joint applicants must each sign the application form.

I CERTIFICATE OF NON-REVOCATION OF POWER OF ATTORNEY/AGENCY

If the application form is signed by an attorney, the power of attorney document is not required to be lodged, but the attorney must complete the certificate of non-revocation of power of attorney on the application form.

If the application form is signed by an agent, the agent must complete the certificate of agency on the application form.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

CCB NZ reserves the right to decline any application, in whole or in part, without giving any reason and may decide not to accept any applications whatsoever.

Money received in respect of applications that are declined in whole or in part will be refunded in whole or in part (as the case may be). Interest will not be paid on application money refunded to applicants.

Applications lodged by individuals must be signed personally or by their attorney or agent. If this application form is signed by an attorney, the attorney must complete the certificate of non-revocation of power of attorney set out in the application form. If this application form is signed by an agent, the agent must complete the certificate of agency set out in the application form.

This application form, the offer and any contract arising out of its acceptance are each governed by New Zealand law. Under the Financial Transactions Reporting Act 1996, investors could be required to produce evidence of their identity.

If you are an individual under the Privacy Act 1993, you have the right to access and correct any of your personal information.
